Plinth I

Temple rugs

DESCRIPTION

The Plinth collection ascends in quiet ritual, each step a rite, leading to a plush altar — an emblem of reverence, made to lift into significance whatever or whomever comes to rest upon it.

Each of the five shapes is available in three grounding colors: hematite, basalt, and granite.

Plinth is a simple yet graphic foundation with alternating silk and wool steps, gaining height until one reaches a densely knotted 12 millimeters of thick and plush Tibetan wool.

Elevate even higher with the cashmere option.
