This Is Not A F*#@ing Droog Light

Castor

DESCRIPTION

This is Not a Fucking Droog Light takes inspiration from the way guitar pedals are activated. Each light is turned on through pressing a switch like a guitar stomp box. Rubber 12-volt truck lights plug into a power box using guitar jacks. Lights can be placed anywhere using metal pucks and magnets. Available in three versions. 12V transformer is included and is housed in the metal box. Includes toggle switches and LED indicator lights.
