twentieth

Singular Offset

Daniele Albright

DESCRIPTION

Singular Offset contrasts a sculptural, hard-edged rectilinear form with soft organic upholstery using richly textured arapaima fish skin (pirarucu in Portuguese) from Brazil. Arapaima fish are an important food source for people native to the Amazon area. The skins are a byproduct of the local food industry, and once tanned, are as durable as conventional leather despite appearing delicate with their visibly textured scales.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

MATERIALS
Tobin bronze, pirarucu (fish skin) upholstery

FINISHES
Light bronze or patina bronze with cream fish skin
Fish skin also available in black, brown, and green (availability varies)

DIMENSIONS
W 33.75” x D 22.25” x H 18.5”

Made to order, dimensions are customizable

Handmade in Los Angeles using pirarucu fish skin from Brazil

Unique piece