

twentieth

Evolution Grande Stool

Thomas Newman Studio

DESCRIPTION

The name “evolution” suggests an elemental, primitive concept: a simple beginning for more complex ideas that evolve from it. The two legs of this piece are identical, held together with a simple notched joint. Their sculptural shape could be a fin or the webbed foot of some prehistoric creature. The basic “X” design is about as old as the art of furniture making and has been elaborated on and embellished for millennia. Its inherent beauty is firmly embedded in the designers’ human aesthetic hard drive.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

DIMENSIONS

twentieth

sales@twentieth.net

323.904.1200

www.twentieth.net

Grande: 22" W x 15" D x 20" H

MATERIALS

Sapele wood, muslin-wrapped cushion

WOOD FINISH

Wood Tone, Cerused, Ebonized, Amber

WOOD TONE

Light, Dark, Warm

UPHOLSTERY

Muslin-wrapped cushion

Shown in Ivory Shag fabric: $150 per Standard stool, $250 per Grande stool

UPHOLSTERY SERVICE

$250 per Standard stool, $350 per Grande stool

COM

3 yard per stool

SPEC SHEET