Ebonized Oak

The Squiggle Chandelier was created through an exploration of shaping solid oak slab lumber. Designed to bring a smile to any space, each light is thoughtfully selected to highlight the grain pattern and characteristics of Oak. Each globe cover is hand turned.

Walnut & Red Oak

The Squiggle Chandelier was created through an exploration of shaping solid walnut slab lumber. Designed to bring a smile to any space, each light is thoughtfully selected to highlight the grain pattern and characteristics of American black walnut. Each globe cover is hand turned from solid red oak adding a contrast of color to its form.

Bleached Maple

The Squiggle Chandelier was created through an exploration of shaping solid Ambrosia Maple lumber. Designed to bring a smile to any space, each light part is thoughtfully selected to highlight the grain pattern and characteristics of Maple. The light globe covers are hand turned in our studio and its form is bleached and whitewashed to give its unique color.
