twentieth

Nautilus Table

James De Wulf

DESCRIPTION

The design is based on the skeletons of Radiolaria which are microscopic organisms found on the ocean floor. The outer edge of the table meanders in an organic way rather than staying in a rigid circle. The leg does as well. In this way we keep the piece human, approachable and fun; rather than adhering to the rigidity of a circle.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

EXO DOUBLE LOCKING DINING TABLE

95" W x 40" D x 30" H

600 LBS

STAINLESS STEEL, CONCRETE