Celeste De Automne

Larose Guyon

DESCRIPTION

In Southeast Asia, sky lanterns symbolize lightness and hope, their gentle glow inspiring love and dreams. During traditional festivities, thousands of paper lanterns gracefully drift into the sky, transforming it into a scene filled with magic and poetry in motion.

Inspired by the delicate and ethereal character of these lanterns, Larose Guyon’s Céleste lamp is designed to evoke that same sense of wonder. Suitable for solo use or in groups, and available in two sizes, this luminous gem captures the enchanting spirit of sky lanterns wherever it is placed.

Here is Celeste d'automne, a new variation that remains true to the original’s enchanting allure. This edition is adorned with small, handcrafted brass fiber leaves, adding a touch of organic beauty and a more natural, tactile quality to the refined gold jewelry chains. A poetic ode to the changing seasons, Celeste d'automne brings a warm, delicate harmony to its timeless design.
